

Intensive Esperanto Courses in Managua / Nicaragua National Autonomous University of Nicaragua (UNAN)

In January 2014, during Nicaragua's summer, there will be a very special opportunity to learn Esperanto. For three full weeks you will have the chance to attend intensive Esperanto courses in this fascinating Central American country. People who already have prior experience in Esperanto will have the ability to start in the second or third week, or start at a higher level in the first week (if enough people enroll for the advanced courses). After the conclusion of the courses, Granada, Nicaragua will be the site of the 1st international congress of Esperanto in Nicaragua.
